

STAY A PART OF FUN

ACROSS

4. Chef Alyssa's Kitchen offers virtual and in-person cooking and _____ classes for kids and teens.
8. In 1799, the Gold Rush began when local Conrad _____ found a 17-pound gold nugget on his family's property.
10. #CSOathome offers streaming audio of past Charlotte _____ Orchestra performances.
11. The Carolina _____ Center has almost 100 birds, monthly homeschool days, STEM adventure sheets and avian projects.
12. The North Carolina _____ Museum has an outdoor tour with locomotives and automotive exhibits.
15. Most of The _____ Games movie was shot in North Carolina.
16. The _____ Center offers over 30 different activities including whitewater rafting, stand up paddleboarding and zip lining.
17. The _____ Collection of African-American Art celebrates the expression and passion of 20 artists and two avid collectors.
18. Freedom and Independence Parks feature demonstration _____ designed, planted and maintained by Master Gardener volunteers.

DOWN

1. James K. _____ was America's 11th president, born just 10 miles south of Charlotte on November 2, 1795.
2. Learn watercoloring or Crayola Calligraphy with online classes from _____.
3. The _____ Museum of Modern Art's #MuseumFromHome has online arts education and activities such as a Picasso coloring sheet.
4. Sign up for a 30-minute virtual Reading _____ session with the Charlotte-Mecklenberg Library.
5. The Queen City is home to more than 50 miles of _____.
6. In 1775, the Mecklenburg Declaration of _____ was signed and among the first that eventually led to the American Revolution.
7. _____ is a tool connecting to local artworks with self-guided artwalks.
9. Founded in 1836, the Charlotte Mint was specifically designed to produce one thing: _____ coins.
13. Charlotte was named for Britain's _____ Charlotte of Mecklenburg-Strelitz.
14. Discovery Place Museum's stay-at-home _____ offers fun projects such as DIY weather stations and making your own seed paper.
15. Charlotte is nicknamed the _____'s Nest because General Cornwallis called it a 'Hornet's Nest of Rebellion' in 1760.