EXPLORE SCOTTSDALE

From the moment the sun rises until long after it sets, Scottsdale offers exciting options for things to see and do. From outdoor adventures and championship golf to upscale shopping and more, your experience can be as active or relaxed as you'd like.

Make your stay a memorable one with:

- › Hot Air Ballooning
- › Horseback Riding
- › Van Tours to Sedona and the Grand Canyon
- › Hummer and Jeep Tours
- › ATV/UTV Tours
- › Restaurant Reservations
- › Transportation services and luxury car rentals

The professional concierge team is dedicated to the needs of both business and leisure travelers and offers a range of services to customize your stay. To make arrangements for any activity or excursion DIAL EXT. 3075

HIKING BEST PRACTICES

With some of the most scenic trails in Arizona, Paradise Valley has the right hiking route for every level. To learn more about nearby trails and difficulty levels, please visit the concierge or fitness desk.

TIPS TO SAFE & COMFORTABLE ON THE TRAIL

- › Bring at least 32 oz. of water for every hour you plan on hiking.
- › May-Sept: Hiking is not recommended during this time due to risk of heat exposure and possible fatal weather conditions
- › Oct-Apr: Hiking is recommended at dawn to minimize risk of heat exposure
- › Stay on the trail and hike with someone, not alone
- › Remain with your party at all times
- › Inform someone of your hiking plans before you leave
- › Bring a fully charged cell phone with you
- › If in distress, stay calm and call 911
- › Choose the hike best suited for your fitness level
- › Consult our fitness staff at ext: 3200 or the concierge with questions pertaining to trail difficulty

Omni Scottsdale does not encourage hiking from May until September. Hikes on all trails in Arizona are done at one's own risk. Beginners should not attempt hikes on Camelback Mountain, Piestewa Peak or Pinnacle Peak since trails may be steep and treacherous. All trails may present hot and dry conditions. The desert has extreme temperatures from high heat, to cool weather and rain. Be sure to check the weather before heading out for the day and be sure to drink plenty of water to avoid dehydration.
