

Arroyo: Every love, every couple, you know, has their own story and every true love is unique and Omni La Costa has that unique quality. It's a very special place.

Woodworth: The weddings at Omni La Costa are truly a unique experience. When you come to La Costa, you're experiencing a total escape. We have everything that you can think of right here on the resort from golf to the spa and yoga classes.

You can have private dining experiences, really anything and everything that you could dream of having, we have it all right here.

Arroyo: We also have pools on the property where the loved ones can just have a great time. Rent a cabana, have a cocktail by the bar. There's just something for everyone.

Woodworth: Every wedding venue here at Omni La Costa is truly beautiful and there's not one that doesn't have an absolutely breathtaking view from our most intimate setting to the beautifully appointed ballrooms and the outdoor terrace spaces there's not one venue here at Omni La Costa that doesn't just scream wedding and beauty and just the perfect day.

We have such a variety of things to offer you for the wedding, as well as for your guests that are going to be coming in and staying the weekend with us.

I'll guide you through the process of the planning, anything from the ceremony setup, reception setup to the food selection.

Woodworth: The wedding salon is a really special place. It's a place that we can come together and really brainstorm the ideas to make sure that we're creating the true wedding of your dreams.

Every idea that you've seen or that you're thinking of, we're really going to capture all those details and make sure that we're making your dreams a reality.

Arroyo: I want all my couples to remember that this is their day and if they can dream it, we can offer it here at Omni La Costa.
