Life has its share of ups and downs — and sometimes you may need a little guidance through the “downs.” EmployeeConnect℠ services included with your employer’s long-term disability insurance offer an array of confidential services to help you and your loved ones meet the challenges that life, work, and relationships can bring.

Unlimited 24/7 assistance

You can access the following services anytime, online or with a toll-free call:

- Information, resources, and referrals on family matters, such as child and elder care; kennels and pet care; event and vacation planning; moving and relocation; car buying; college planning; and more
- Legal information and referrals for situations requiring expertise in family law, estate planning, landlord/tenant relations, consumer and civil law, and more
- Guidance with financial matters, including household budgeting, and short- and long-term planning

In-person guidance

Some matters are best resolved by meeting with a professional in person. With EmployeeConnect, you get:

- In-person help for short-term issues (up to four* sessions with a counselor per person, per issue, per year)
- In-person consultations with network lawyers, including one free 30-minute in-person consultation per legal issue, and subsequent meetings at a reduced fee
Online resources

EmployeeConnect offers a wide range of information and resources that you can research and access on your own just by visiting GuidanceResources.com. You’ll find:

- Articles and tutorials

EmployeeConnect℠ counselors are experienced and credentialed

When you call our toll-free line, you’ll talk to an experienced professional who will provide counseling, work-life advice, and referrals. All counselors hold master’s degrees, with broad-based clinical skills and at least three years of experience in counseling on a variety of issues. For face-to-face meetings, you will be referred to a fully credentialed, state-licensed clinician.

You’ll receive a customized information packet for each of the work-life services you use.
